

Unitarian Universalist Faith Exploration for July 2014

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
		1st Jefferson edited the New Testament to make it more rational. You can buy Jefferson's Bible from the UUA bookstore	2nd Was Thomas Jefferson a Unitarian? Read a good article here: http://www.uuworld.org/ideas/articles/2892.shtml	3rd  Thomas Jefferson , died July 4, 1826	4th Independence Day	5th Jefferson's Pillow: The Founding Fathers and the Dilemma of Black Patriotism is available from the UUA bookstore
6th  John Sigismund	7th Prince John Sigismund's birthday, 1540	8th Find Transylvania on a world map. Discuss how events long ago and far away can still matter to us today.	9th Sigismund was the only ever Unitarian King. Learn more: http://uucuc.org/the-history-of-unitarianism	10th D.B. Johnson has a series of picture books about Thoreau, such as Henry Builds a Cabin . All are great!	11th  Henry David Thoreau	12th Henry David Thoreau's birthday, 1817
13th Thoreau as Spiritual Guide is available from the UUA bookstore.	14th Thoreau went to the woods to live deliberately. How do you live deliberately?	15th	16th	17th	18th	19th Ice Cream Sundaes were named by a Unitarian minister in 1892
20th National Ice Cream Day is the 3 rd Sunday in July	21st 	22nd	23rd	24th	25th	26th
27th Ramadan ends.	28th Eid al-fitr , the celebration of breaking fast after Ramadan.	29th Why does Ramadan move around the year? Look it up!	30th	31st		